

Byram, CT

Our New SoHo?

Once strictly working-class, Byram has gone fashionable. Just up the street from Port Chester and across the state line, this small section of Greenwich is today dotted with chic shops and charming boutiques alongside the old neighborhood delis and beauty parlors. Here, a quick and easy guide to the trendy new stores on Byram's Mill Street.

Mint (#253, 203-532-0200). Pop into this cool consignment boutique for girls (size 4T through teens) to score gently used items from Juicy, True Religion, BCBG, etc., at wonderfully affordable prices.

Side Door (#248, 203-532-5606). This contemporary women's fashion boutique is known for its au courant collection of denim and tees plus shirts, dresses, and sportswear.

Singer Design Group (#234, 203-531-3343). You'll find a selection of furniture, fabrics, wall coverings, lighting, and window treatments at this interior-design shop and showroom.

914

Talk of the County

(continued from previous page)

Cynthia's (#219, 203-531-5937). Head to this tiny accessories shop for peace-sign necklaces, straw handbags, and reading glasses/sunglasses spectacle combos.

Go To Your Room (#255, 203-532-9701). Find made-to-order armoires, bookcases, wall units, and night tables for kids and adults, plus hand-painted mirrors and specialty knobs.

Salon O (#239, 203-531-3000). Visit this ultra-chic salon to indulge in a mani-pedi or facial, treat your tresses to a city-style cut and color, or pick up must-have hair products.

Tip: For lunch, stop by Greenwich Lobster House (2 S Water St, 203-531-6400) for a classic Maine lobster roll. Or refuel any time with an old-fashioned chocolate milkshake at Burgers, Shakes & Fries (302 Delavan Ave, 203-531-7433).

// LY