

Wagging the seen and the scene

BY ELSA BRENNER

Wagging... continued

But if, as they say, looking good is the best revenge (for all of life's slings and arrows), then one of the stops on your rounds this spring should have been to Salon O in Greenwich for its first annual Makeover Day. Dr. Kenneth Magid was there to tell folks about Zoom teeth whitening, Invisalign straightening without braces, and DaVinci porcelain veneers. Very informative, and by the way, the good doctor, an associate professor of esthetics at NYU COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY, practices what he preaches, sporting one of the most winning smiles we've come across in a long while.

Dr. Michael Suzman, who directs the plastic surgery department of the Westchester Medical Group, had all kinds of good info to share about getting your face "done" and still having it all look natural, which of course, is the goal nowadays.

Want to know which is the most popular plastic surgery? Not just faces, but, you guessed it, breast augmentation! Ah, there's so much out there to spend our money on, all for the good cause of looking great. And just in case you've tried everything and need something new, have you considered rejuvenation infusion, topical hyperbaric oxygen therapy for those resistant furrows and smile lines? But if it's a good haircut and a new color you're aching for, check out what Omar and Rocco, Salon O's owners, recommend. You'll be in the best of hands.

Wagging... continued

Last and not least, of course, the Junior League of Northern Westchester celebrated a year of volunteerism at Le Château in South Salem for its annual dinner. If you're interested in joining the lovely ladies, check out the scene with Christina Dochtermann of Bedford Hills, the current president, or president-elect Becki Fleisher of Pound Ridge. They'll give you a royal welcome.

Left: Abraham Cardenas, Omar Roth, Dr. Kenneth Magid, and Rocco Palermi at Salon O's first annual Makeover Day; Center: Nathaniel Torres working at Salon O's Makeover Day; Right: Marisa Palermi working at Salon O.