FLOWING*LINES

Like an art nouveau frieze, a wide band of inky black embroidery circles the hem of this silk taffeta gown. The bodice is also hand embroidered and the back has two "streamers" caught with a bow in the center. Swarovski iridescent crystals and floating embroidered butterflies are scattered throughout. Style #9185 by St. Pucci, available at Bridal Reflections, New York, NY, (212) 764-3040 > $3,725.

Art Notes: A reclaimed staircase from Romeo resembles a striking piece of modern art.
