

Lest we not forget, we absolutely must, must mention the opening of Salon O in Greenwich. Omar and Rocco, two sensational hairstylists, are not only savvy about hair, but they've also jumped into "the scene" by hosting a fundraiser in the spring for White Plains Hospital Center. Among those seen in that crowd were Harriet and Paul Weissman (he's the chair of WPHC) and managing director emeritus of Bear Stearns; Roseanne Braiotta, a director; Alicia Horton, senior development associate; Carol and Carl Portale (A-plus for her robin's egg blue leather jacket); Scott Meenan of Morgan Stanley; and David Hanswirth, a dentist who practices what he preaches. Definitely check out the talents of Omar (of Frederick Fekkai fame) and Rocco. They perform miracles. Or so I've heard. They swear to positively reinvent you!
